

Bryan Craig's Prayer Points for the Movie Project

- For our Core team to keep Abiding in Christ and remember the purpose of this project is to help millions of seekers find an intimate, abiding relationship with Christ.
- For the Holy Spirit to establish the work of our hands and direct our steps and not take away from current needs of the Global ministry.
- For the script Brian Bird is writing to be nothing less than a “worship song” that will be a sweet aroma to the Lord and one that will be shared the world over.
- For the Holy Spirit to draw A-list actors, directors, producers to our project who have a “mission mindset” who will see this as the beginning of a spiritual Revival.
- For the perfect schedule for filming and release.
- For the Holy Spirit to speak to the hearts of individuals who have been given extra resources and have passion for our ministry to bring generous gifts in obedience to Him.
- For there to be no Division or Diversion within our team or with Influencers Global ministries. That our Staff and Boards will be as excited about this as we are.
- For the creative videos and promotional pieces Kevin Ernst will be working on the next few months, including our Journey Guide training videos.
- For the men at the International Summit to catch the vision and let that spark ignite a wildfire!
- For thousands of churches all over the U.S. to catch the vision and desire to be part of our Influencers Church Discipleship Network.
- For thousands of future Journey guides to be roused to action in the next year to be willing, ready and able to respond after the movie.

Mark Batterson in "The Circle Maker" asserts that we need to be praying BIG prayers, that ONLY God could answer. Here's a few of those:

- For the movie to be fully funded by the end of this year, all from people within the Influencers family, whether investment or donation.
- For 1 million new people to join journey groups in the next 5 years.
